Saint Joseph's Cathedral

SAN DIEGO
CALIFORNIA

San Diego's new Cathedral rebuilt on the site of Saint Joseph's Church at 3rd and Beech Streets. Of Spanish Renaissance beauty with its rose and stained glass windows, it also hints of the early California missions with beamed roof.

The Cathedral features such modern conveniences as perfect acoustics, indirect lighting, invalid's chapel, and a seating arrangement of 1200.

POST CARD

3